

Manale Landscaping, LLC

I, Damon Manale, owner of Manale Landscaping, LLC, am writing this letter to share how valuable the relationship between Manale Landscaping, LLC and Donald R. Stephens, LLC, CPA is and has been for the past more than four (4) years. Their customer service is second to none, and the response time is amazing. I could never picture going anywhere else for our accounting needs. In this day and age, with lending companies and banking institutions requiring quicker and more detailed financial information, Donald R. Stephens, LLC, CPA is able to provide all the information necessary in a very expedited manner. So much so, that we receive compliments from these financial institutions on a regular basis. A CPA firm is someone who is not always the bearer of good news, but everyone at Donald R. Stephens, LLC, CPA does everything they can to help turn any type of bad news into something much better for Manale Landscaping, LLC.

Another one of Donald R. Stephens, LLC, CPA greatest gifts to Manale Landscaping, LLC is always pushing us to strive to be debt free. I wake up every morning with the thought of needing to pay down the debt. To date, Manale Landscaping, LLC has tremendously reduced its debt and that is all due to the continual encouragement from Donald R. Stephens, CPA.

There is no other way to say it, Donald R. Stephens, LLC, CPA is just an all around great company to work with! I actually like to consider them more like an extended employee. They are never more than a phone call away to help Manale Landscaping, LLC in any way they can. I would not and do not hesitate to recommend them to anyone looking for the services provided by a CPA firm.
